

INDEPENDENT PUBLISHER BOOK AWARDS HONORING INDIE EXCELLENCE FOR OVER 25 YEARS

Calling all publishers and authors! We are proud to announce the 27th annual Independent Publisher Book Awards, conducted to honor the year's best independently published titles. We are now accepting entries for books with 2021-2023 copyrights. The contest is presented by Jenkins Group and our book marketing website, IndependentPublisher.com, headquartered in Traverse City, Michigan. We are proud to have hosted the "IPPYs" and supported the independent publishing movement for over 25 years!

The awards are intended to bring increased recognition to the thousands of exemplary independent, university, and self-published titles published each year. Since the inaugural contest in 1996, over 5,500 books have received "IPPY" Awards, and all the recognition, credibility, and increased sales that a book award can bring.

The IPPY Awards reward those who exhibit the courage, innovation, and creativity to bring about change in the world of publishing. Independent spirit and expertise comes from publishers of all sizes and budgets and books are judged with that in mind. Gold, Silver, and Bronze medals will be presented in the General categories, as well as 24 Regional fiction and non-fiction categories and 10 ebook categories.

Thanks for your participation, and best of luck!

Amy Shamroe, Awards Director

GENERAL/REGIONAL CATEGORIES

General categories are open to all entrants, in fiction and non-fiction categories. Regional IPPYs will be awarded to the Best Fiction and Best Non-Fiction books in 12 different geographic regions. If your book is written with a regional focus, don't miss this opportunity to extend your exposure and increase your chances of winning an IPPY. Entry fee is just $55 when adding a Regional entry to your General category entry. See pages 3 and 4 for full category lists.

Note: children's picture books generally don't fare well in regional categories.

EBOOK CATEGORIES

While we do accept ebooks in all general and regional categories, we also present gold, silver and bronze medals in ten ebook categories to acknowledge the importance of ebooks and their distinct format. Entry fee is just $55 when adding an ebook entry to a regular print book entry, but fees are the same as general category fees when entering an ebook category only. See the list of ebook categories on page 4.

OUTSTANDING BOOKS OF THE YEAR

All IPPY entrants are automatically considered; no extra effort is needed to enter. They will be chosen from the regular Award entries, nominated by judges. These selections recognize those who exhibit the courage and creativity necessary to take chances, break new ground and bring about change in the tradition of Independent Publisher.

2023 INDEPENDENT PUBLISHER BOOK AWARDS GUIDELINES

WHO MAY ENTER

Independent publishers, university presses, self-publishers and independent authors throughout North America, as well as overseas publishers and authors who publish books intended for an English speaking audience are eligible. Authors are welcome to enter their books themselves.

ELIGIBILITY

Books released with 2021-2023 copyrights are eligible. Entrants are to select the category and/or region (see category list) in which the book(s) should be judged. Regional entries do best when their subject matter reflects the region in which they're entered. In other words, a book by an author from Quebec writing about a murder in Maine will do best in the North-East U.S. regional category. Make your decision on whether a book will sell best at a regional level, and which region it will sell in.

ENTRY FEES

Submission for more than one category is acceptable, but each requires a fee. Entry fees are per title, per category – see “Early-bird” entry fee schedule on order form. When entering a title into more than one category, please send a copy of the book for each category entered. Multiple entries can be sent in one package, and entry fees paid by check or money order can be combined into one check amount. Please include completed entry form or online registration receipt in the same package as the books.

Note: Due to new banking policies, we only accept personal checks from outside the United States that are drawn from a U.S. currency account and have U.S. DOLLARS permanently printed on the check or money order.

SENDING YOUR BOOK/EBOOK/AUDIOBOOK

The final step of the online entry process is to print out your entry info receipt and mailing instructions. Send one copy of the book for each general and/or regional category entered, with the entry form or online receipt tucked inside the front cover. For example, when you enter two general categories and one regional category, please send three books. All books entered become the physical property of Jenkins Group and will eventually be donated to libraries and charities. Judges only get to see the book itself, so please don't send press kits, reviews, bookmarks, etc. as they will be discarded.

You will have the option to upload electronic submissions after you enter an ebook category and pay online. Audiobook submissions and ebook gifts should be sent to digital@jenkinsgroupinc.com.

DEADLINES

Early bird deadlines in August and November are designed to encourage early entries (see schedule on order form). All entries must be posted online or postmarked by the final deadline of February 25, 2023. We will confirm your entry via email and send periodic updates about judging and results announcement. Please add notifier@jenkinsgroupinc.com ippy@jgibookawards.com and amys@jenkinsgroupinc.com so we can stay in touch throughout the awards process.

JUDGING PROCESS

Judging will be based on quality of content, design, and production with an emphasis on originality, innovation and social relevance in each category. Our judging panel includes experts from the fields of editing, design, reviewing, bookselling and library.

RESULTS ANNOUNCEMENT

Three to six medalists per category will be named on about April 8th. Planning is underway for the 2023 ceremony; details to follow. All winners will receive medalist packets by mail.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION

Each medal-winning book will receive a medalist packet including a gold, silver or bronze medal, a personalized certificate, and 20 foil seals. Related publicity includes the awards event, online and social media advertising, and year-long exposure at IndependentPublisher.com.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

WHO ENTERS THE IPPY AWARDS?

All independent publishers are eligible, ranging from self-published authors to major university presses. About 2,000 publishers participate in the Awards each year, from every U.S. state, Canada, and English-speakers overseas.

ARE AWARDS PROGRAMS WORTH THE MONEY AND EFFORT?

Entering your titles in awards programs does take time, money, and effort, but the pay-offs include increased visibility, credibility, P.R. value, personal satisfaction, and prestige. Awards are a great morale boost for all those involved, and they influence reviewers and buyers. An award seal on a book's cover increases retail sales.

WHAT SETS THE IPPY AWARDS APART?

IPPY Award entrants have four ways to win: the General, Regional, Ebook and Outstanding Books of the Year (which all entrants are considered for with no extra fee). Award winners appear for an entire year on our website, www.IndependentPublisher.com, and are featured prominently in feature stories in our monthly newsletter, which goes out to over 15,000 subscribers worldwide, many of whom are agents, buyers, and librarians.

IF I ENTER THE AWARDS ONLINE, HOW DO YOU JUDGE MY BOOKS?

We designed the online entry system to make entering the IPPY Awards more convenient, but you still have to ship the books to us. We suggest (but don't require) that you send a traceable package so you can confirm delivery of your entry. If possible, please include the online entry receipt or completed entry form with the book. We do send confirmation by email when your entry is received and processed by our team.

If your book is ebook only and you only entered it in a General and/or Regional category, please email it to digital@jenkinsgroupinc.com with "IPPY Entry in the subject line.

DO THE JUDGES READ EVERY BOOK FROM COVER TO COVER?

Book awards judges are very good at assessing a book's quality, much as a buyer at a bookstore or library determines whether or not to purchase. The further a book makes it into the judging process the more likely it will be read completely.
